Introduce yourself and the project

Introduce yourself to the caregiver and show identification.

“Hello. My name is [say your name], I work for an organisation called Plan International and I'm conducting a survey about an education programme in your area.”

3. Can you tell me how old you are?

- 6 - 12
- 13 - 18

If the child is not 6-18 years old, stop the survey and ask the next person.

Introduce the project

“Going to school helps children to learn, keeps them safe and gives them better opportunities for the future, but sometimes some children can't go to school. For these children, Plan International has created an education programme called Aprendiendo Unidos. I would like to ask you some questions that will help us understand how Aprendiendo

Unidos can work best."

4. Does this make sense to you?

Yes

Receive verbal consent

Get the child's verbal consent to take part in the survey.

"I will be asking you about your ideas about Aprendiendo Unidos. It's ok if you don't know this programme - we are still interested in what you think! There are no wrong answers to the questions. You don't have to answer all the questions I ask you and you can stop at any time. If you have any questions, you can ask me at any time."

5. Are you happy to answer my questions now?

Yes

Background questions

6. Select the child's gender based on observation.
